

Wolfe's Neck Farm Summer Camp Junior Counselor Application

Please attach this application to a completed Camp Registration Form

Thank you for your interest in the position of Junior Counselor for the Wolfe's Neck Farm Summer Camp. We're looking forward to a fun and exciting year and as always, Junior Counselors are a very important part of our camp programs. The position of Junior Counselor involves a minimum 2-week volunteer commitment during the camp season running from mid June through mid August. All applicants must be 13 to 16 years old, (12 year olds can apply if they will turn 13 before the start of camp) and must be able to attend a one day orientation and training session in June. Orientation dates will be scheduled in the Spring. Junior counselors attend camp for free in exchange for their service.

We look forward to receiving your application! Please mail it with a complete camp registration form to Wolfe's Neck Farm, 184 Burnett Road, Freeport, ME 04032.

If you have questions, please call 865-4363 or email mmitchell@wolfesneckfarm.org.

PLEASE READ AND SIGN: I understand being a Junior Counselor is a great responsibility and privilege. I will work hard to help my counselor and to provide a fun camp experience for the children in my group. I understand Junior Counselors are expected to follow the same rules of conduct as Summer Camp staff, and that if I display inappropriate behavior I may not be allowed to continue work as a Junior Counselor.
